LGC INDEX 1984

COMPUTING
A seaside holiday by computer? B. Weeks, 514
A touch of class as members learn a special lesson, N. Denson, 104
BIAS – the solution to computerised bonus schemes, G. King, 600
Box office computer system for profit, M. Mitchell, 402
Computer software – how to find the best value for money, K. Dugmore, 308
Creating a responsive service, R. Dean, 114
Gateshead – solving the problem of benefit assessments, M. Shaw, 1142
High-tech and low humour, C. Derby, 1438
Make use of the user, B. Dunn, 1168
Management – a crucial factor in information technology, R. Hinton, 1114
Masters of Technology, K. Younger & D. Field, 341
New technology – some of top thinkers are local authorities, D. Peschek, 378
Personal questions for the computer department, T. Moore, 1195
Sevenoaks D.C. moves into self sufficient computing, R. Neal, 136
The benefits of being on line, P. Adley, 1090
The introduction of a computerised DLOsystem, A. Petcher, 110
The savings that can be made through spending more, P. Webb, 108
The way to end payday problems, B. Montague, 78
Wycombe DC's approach to increasing effectiveness, B. Barrell, 458

DEVELOPMENT
Backing a winner at Doncaster, D. Cox, 1032
Bureaucrats are the losers every time, J. Burns, 671
Housing confidence must come from new approaches, R. Hedley, 700
Housing turned into social service, A. Midwinter, 798
Housing national plan is first priority, R. Hedley, 774
Looking at an area's real development needs, P. Quantock, 1085
Partnership and development should have a wider meaning, R. Hedley, 1292
Public initiatives and private investment, H. Mallinson, 1030
Red Rose heritage attracts the tourists, B. Manning, 766
Stirling – planning for the future, J. Cairns, 878
The need to manage our urban decline, R. Hedley, 1411
Welsh warn of housing crisis, R. Hedley, 802

FINANCE
A lack of support for account proposals, D. Wardman, 513
All hopes hang on the lords, K. Webster, 433
Analysing the chief executive responses, J. Baker, 1167
Assessing the benefits of pursuing information, J. Pipe, 1435
Assessing trends within CIPFA and the PFF, J. Pipe, 1225
Audit commission completes its first year, C. Derby, 544
Audit commission draws a hostile reaction from delegates, A. Jacobs, 680
Audit commission – taking account of the first year, C. Nicholson & J. Sprigg, 372
Bad timing for new accounts regulations, D. Wardman, 135
Buses bombshell lands without consultation, J. Baker, 1027
Consultations are an unwanted reform, C. Martlew, 1316
Consultation time-business wheels out the big guns, D. Wardman, 1255
Councils pay if DoE estimates are wrong, D. Wardman, 1345
Dangers of introducing politics into accountancy, J. Pipe, 1055
Does local government need data protection? J. Pipe, 951
Drawing a valid comparison, M. Rogers, 460
Drawn out toll procedures an insult to authorities, J. Baker, 1285
Easier targets, harder penalties, T. Travers, 896
Effective transport characteristics identified, J. Baker, 1407
End of housing spend, spend, spend, D. McCulloch, 230
Finance review deja vu, T. Travers, 1161
'Friendly' request backed by threats, D. Wardman, 877
Future rate agreement offers greater stability, R. Packshaw, 1386
Ghosts and ghouls on the rates, P. Underwood, 1004
GLEB – has it a future without GLC cash help? A. Jacobs, 541
Greater strength for centralists to upset balance, J. Pipe, 733
Ideal moment to look backwards and forwards, D. Wardman, 13
It should have been the abuse of local government, D. Wardman, 741
Justifying a profitable gamble, K. Webster, 957
Law breaking – why common sense should prevail, K. Webster, 316
Merger would benefit private over public sector, J. Pipe, 1322
More centralisation less choice, J. Pipe, 223
More controls, less cash for housing, D. Wardman, 253
MPs lack experience in local government, K. Webster, 82
MSC 'initiative' is dangerous to local action, J. Baker, 795
Parish precepts may be the rate capping loophole, J. Bryant, 906
Paying the price on the buses, D. Wardman, 999
Personal contact is the key to EEC funds, R. Hedley, 1352
PFF – the dangers of too much centralisation, J. Pipe, 595
Politics of the civil service, J. Pipe, 102
Possible route ahead for the rate capped authorities, K. Webster, 1315
Practitioner's view of the Rates Bill, R. Lord, 170
Pressure from the treasury may affect action on capital programmes, K. Webster, 1028
Privileged position of business on the rates, D. Wardman, 1083
Problems of hitting a moving target, D. Wardman, 621
Proposals to change transport grants, J. Baker, 901
Public reward for measuring performance in education, J. Baker, 675
Rate capping – how the victims will be chosen, T. Travers, 800
Relending PWLB money – the legal opinion, K. Webster, 594
Revealing thoughts on information freedom, J. Pipe, 371
RSG calculations – way through the maze! P. Smith & J. Stewart, 44
'Simplify damaging grant system' call, C. Derby, 1117
Sorting the truth from the myths, J. Pipe, 850
Switching interest from one budget to another, D. Wardman, 401
Taking advantage of PWLB largesse, K. Webster, 193
Time to take account of regional differences, J. Baker, 571
Time to update the bailiffs' service, B. Wigley, 138
Valuations charge into uncertainty, F. Othick, 65
Yardsticks for bad payers are worth examining, K. Webster, 728

INVESTMENT
Another strong year for UK equities, R. Morton, 490
Authorities must manage the fund managers, R. Morton, 1348
Autumn hurdles in the equity market, R. Morton, 1062
Awaiting arrival of the rates police, R. Morton, 73
Eastern promise, K. Smith, 1380
Growth on the slide but gilts look good, R. Morton, 882
Investment in the far east, S. Barber, 1192
Japan opens its doors, F. Pike, 1232
Looking with hindsight at stockbrokers' forecasts, R. Morton, 1442
Performance tables indicate latest trends, R. Morton, 979
Plans to reform the Stock Exchange, R. Morton, 678
Looking with hindsight at stockbrokers forecasts, R. Morton, 1442
Property as an investment in changing times, R. Morton, 224
Putting the Japanese investment prospects in perspective, C. Derby, 518
Raising the bamboo curtains, G. Smith, 1354
The Japanese cult of excellence, G. Smith, 1414
The problem of assessing quality of management, R. Morton, 1226
Trends since exchange controls removed, R. Morton, 350
Trustee duties on pension funds, R. Morton, 602

LAW
A commitment to training for public sector, R. Hedley, 376
Accountability – what the law says on joint boards, J. Harris, 190
Act identifies a number of very serious offences, D. Swallow, 1314
Adventurous use of S111 turns up some surprises, C. Cross, 68
A time for taking stock, M. Chastell, 1144
A new look at the role of the police committee, J. Harris, 46
Approval by private inspectors, M. Clarke, 1219
Bradford's secrecy breaking that helps good management, T. Whiting, 1084
Clearing up points on the law of consumer protection, B. Harvey, 280
Clearing up the law on liabilities, duties and powers, Prof. H. Street, 36
Compensation provisions for compulsory purchasing, K. Davies, 898
Council records and the right of access, D. Swallow, 948
Council tenants and family breakdown, Prof. J.G. Miller, 738
Developing expertise is prime task, J. Croxen, 222
Difficulties in opening up case conferences, D. Swallow, 1342
Difficulties in securing a speedy child care order, J. Ellison, 618
Difficulties of purchasing land subject to planning consent, C. Brand & D. Williams, 672
Documents – the uncertainty over members' right of access, M. Gregory, 428
Examining conditions of planning consent, C. Cross, 396
Freeing a child for adoption, J. Ellison, 820
Harsh decision on reviving ancient market deprives public, E. Cousins & R. Anthony, 100
House of Lords defends Scotland's democracy, D. Sinclair, 1280
Learning the problems of selective lawlessness, K. Webster, 1191
Legislative patchwork on residential homes, H.W. Clarke, 539
Limited companies – their pros and cons, I. Cartwright, 160
Lords' decision governs members' access to child care files, D. Swallow, 994
Lorry licensing – a recipe for confusion, C.A. Baker, 847
Mortgage and shared ownership, D. Hoath, 1163
New act brings important changes to the tenants' charter, D. Hoath, 1052
Notice is hereby given, Colin Heathcote, 1384
Open local government is good local government, R. Bailey, 1432
Painting and the DLO accounts, C. Cross, 250
Planning and the law – an officers duty of care, Barrister B. Denyer Green, 10
Planning law and objections from neighbours, R.N.D. Hamilton, 565
Private sector care can lead to public sector problems, D. Swallow, 792
Problems facing schools over copyright law, J. Hunter, 464
Question of where council owes duty of care, C. Cross, 1252
Regulating the use of personal data, C. Bourn, 1313
Right to buy – which tenants are eligible, D. Hoath, 1136
Six months of case law reviewed, C. Cross, 132
Social security – the case for more local control, R. Lord, 622
Social services records – who should have access? D. Swallow, 972
Taking a fresh look at children and the law, A. Fraser, 922
The courts and fares – the effect of legal rulings, J. Ellison, 483
The legal value of hearsay evidence, C. Cross, 1108
'The more councils fight the more they lose', R. Hedley, 1200
The problems of an appeals procedure, D. Swallow, 1403
The right to attend sub committees, C. Cross, 1373
The right to buy new freedoms for tenants, D. Hoath, 1079
Why solicitors must learn to manage with training, J. Croxen, 337
Courts review liability for accidents in the home, C. Cross, 508
Difficulties of seeking judical opinions on council actions, C. Cross, 760
Enforcement notices – squatters and liability, C. Cross, 648
Protest and survive or pay penalty for obedience, C. Cross, 874
Publishing political argument lawfully, C. Cross, 1024

MANPOWER & MANAGEMENT
Accountants as managers, M. Easteal, 793
A guide to selecting the best employees, C. Beever, 764
A lesson in how not manage, D. Andrews, 1224
An undervalued profession, T. Featherstone, 1138
A personal recollection of Redcliffe-Maud, M. Easteal, 654
Appraisal as a part of career progression, C. Bate, 168
Appraisal – it's useless without commitment, R. Brooke, 70

Assessing the service employees give, N. Sutcliffe, 14
Assessing the value of the Thornbridge experience, R. Pensam, 946
A way out of the arbitration deadlock, A. Fowler, 900
A wondrous world where opposites co-exist, B. McAndrew, 1284
Background research in interview experience, B. McAndrew, 340
Basic skills in selecting staff are neglected, B. McAndrew, 400
Battle for fitness, F. Watson, 770
Broadening the horizons, R. Morris, 1434
But on the other hand take Jim, Jack and Charlie, P. Nainby, 822
Case for a rethink on community programmes, R. Gaunt, 1412
Censure, flak and climb-down at conference battleground, S. Hardingham, 709
Complex issues on new equal pay regulations, S. Hardingham, 288
Complications of overtly political officers, B. McAndrew, 702
Computing – manpower statistics made easy, J. Castleton & M. Green, 851
Coping with change needs an inventive approach, M. Whitehead, 1251
Critical mass that makes training a success, D. Leigh, 1034
Dear Sir . . . Yours faithfully, D.A. Richards, 626
Determination is the key to reaching the top, M. Alexander, 1220
Difficult decisions on medical retirements, A. Fowler, 162
Excellence may not be the best way to effectiveness, A. Fowler, 1110
Forces at work within NALGO, S. Hardingham, 166
GLC's long term experience of appraisal, J. Herbert, 226
Get thissen a reight job at t'town hall, R. Lord, 902
Gourmet's guide to local government, S. Hardingham, 976
Heartening yuletide tale of S.C. Rooge, B. McAndrew, 1406
Importance of good communications, B. McAndrew, 1166
INLOGOV – a degree of promise but what achievement? R. Hedley, 598
In search of excellence, M. Easteal, 978
In search of inspiration, C. Holtham, 1230
Is the audit commission sitting comfortably? A. Fowler, 313
Learning the logic of people power, M. Clarke, 1165
Learning the qualities to reach the top – and stay there. M. Whitehead, 1320
Life at the top with seven year contract, K. Webster, 823
Making the most of libraries, B. Stradling, 505
Management reorganisation at Eastbourne, M. Rogers, 198
Finding time for management, C. Eiles, 1339
Moral behind contracting out services, A. Fowler, 620
Manpower planning essentials, N. Sutcliffe, 432
Need for manpower safety nets, B. McAndrew, 1026
Norfolk approves merger plan second time around, D. Peschek, 995
Panel interview – the worst known form of selection, B. McAndrew, 566
Pay claim action plans endorsed, K. Miller, 991
Pay talks – authorities cry wolf too often, B. McAndrew, 794
Positive policies for the disabled, L. Heeley, 950
Presidency – the highlight of 30 years in NUPE, S. Hardingham, 543
Privatisation gets close examination but interest fades, S. Hardingham, 703
Probation needs effort to make it worthwhile, A. Fowler, 72
Quantifying the worth of personnel departments, A. Fowler, 1344
Regulations on employing the disabled, M. Guttridge, 674
Rough reception for TUC warnings, M. Whitehead,
Simple question on merit pay, A. Fowler, 285
Spoof and whimsy of NALGO branch life, S. Hardingham, 736
Some strange provisions hiding in the small print, A. Fowler, 512
Staff comparisons don't work, D. Scott, 646
Taking the agony out of staff appraisal, A. Fowler, 1254
There's room for more women in government says the EOC chairman, M. Alexander, 228
Time to look at experience with new work patterns, A. Fowler, 732
Time to update ideas on race, B. McAndrew, 39
Tuning into business at the town hall, J. Barlow & M. Wilson, 485
Union battles don't end with privatisation, S. Hardingham, 651
Weighing the merits of old and new pay systems, A. Fowler, 998
What has happened to ground rules', M. Clarke, 880
What to look for in the drive towards the three Es, H. Bolton, 828
Women in local government – still a neglected resource, M. Alexander, 974
Workaholism – watch out for the symptoms! C. Beever, 256
Working abroad – Britain's professional contribution to the third world, R. Mitchinson, 1377
Work to improve the average in advice to councils, S. Hardingham, 348
Your rating in the local government war, B. McAndrew, 192

PENSIONS B

Benefits of a simple pension scheme, P. Taylor, 296
Chancellor has his eye on your lump sum, K. Webster, 1382
Changes in the PRC regulations, P. Taylor, 1118
Different interpretations of portable pensions, P. Taylor, 537
Difficulties in dividing the cost of pensions, P. Taylor, 1012
Protection from portable pension pressures, P. Taylor, 688
When pensions pay more than wages, P. Taylor, 56

POLICY & POLITICS

A blunt, tough negotiator, Dr. A. Midwinter, 912
'Abolition won't be defeated', A. Jacobs, 1249
ADC warned of being too complacent, A. Jacobs, 1294
A clear case of discrimination in local authorities, D. Hender, 1139
A contract for loyalty, D. Adams, 1111
ALA – how it sees the future, A. Jacobs, 18
A look at the value of fixed term contracts, D. Hender, 808
A new world identical to the old world, M. Spungin, 1002
Annual reports disappointing claims consumer council, D. Scott, 1068
A polite threat from government, D. Adams, 984
A problem of tactics, A. Jacobs, 924
A sad story for local government, T. Travers, 229
Assertion but no analysis, Dr. A. Midwinter, 552
Assessing chances in the honourable lottery, M. FitzGerald, 596
Assessing the need for central election statistics, M. Thrasher & C. Rallings, 486
A step backwards for transport T. Gaffney, 1318
A stormy reception for co-operation plea, A. Jacobs, 1088
Brent register aims to give accountability, M. Coleman, 482
Britain's centralisation is out of step with Europe, M. Alexander, 1291
Case for rate limitation, M. Spungin, 34
Chaos started back in '76, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 307
Charter of local self government proposed for Europe, D. Peschek, 1202
Civil service doesn't know all the answers, R. Hinton, 463
Competition needed for a good turnout, C. Rallings & M. Thrasher, 1140
Councils move one step nearer to illegality, A. Midwinter, 1268
Dangers of a high profile, M. Whitehead, 1340
Deadly question of how to do it, J. Harris, 687
Decentralisation must make sense, D. Adams, 1262
Deteriorating relationships, D. Scott, 849
Don't be too complacent about this campaign, D. Adams, 134
Don't ignore the power of advertising, D. Hender, 1328
Electoral reform – more hung councils may result, C. Rallings & M. Thrasher, 538
Electorate's view of abolition bill proposals, C. Rallings & M. Thrasher, 1436
Evaluating whether the cap fits, A. Midwinter, 74
48 hours in South Yorkshire, J. Harris, 1059
Financial justifications just don't add up, J. Marriott, 1288
Finding a proper role within the community, M. Masterson, 338
Four cities may make a new political force, D. Scott, 964
Game set and match to Rates Act, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 819
Government approach shows no respect, D. Adams, 41
Government believes concessions would undermine its strategy, D. Adams, 520
Government's shock election plans, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 608
Grant speak, D. Adams, 905
Hand-over plans for mets certainly aren't streamlined, J. Harris, 370
Hiding facts behind bureaucratese, M. Wheaton, 314
How not to streamline the cities, 727
How the high spenders will face rate capping, A. Jacobs, 50
How the Treasury has deluded itself, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 740
How to manage without the mets, T. Caulcott, 196
Importance of a two minute meeting, T. Arbour, 920
Information technology should mean progress not gimmicks, D. Hender 1022
Joint boards are a wasteful form of government, J. Stewart & G. Jones, 1360
Liverpool style tactics won't work for Scots, A. Midwinter, 996
Local government American style, C. Smith, 1170
Lord Bellwin strikes back, Lord Bellwin, 650
Loyalty – a delicate area, D. Hender, 567
Management under threat, R. Kendle, 440
Mixed reactions to proposed CIPFA merger, D. Hender, 1410
Monetarists show little respect for democracy, B. Turner, 516
Mr Younger will be pressed to ease the burden on domestic ratepayers, D. Scott, 1392
New politics in local government, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 1431
Need to question methods and priorities, D. Hender, 925
No changes outside mets says Jenkin, A. Jacobs, 772
Painting a picture of disruption, J. Harris, 1260
Parliamentary way to push through legislation, R. Walker, 336
Party politics show patchy results, C. Rallings & M. Thrasher, 1286
Paying the penalty for a mistaken identity, R. Hedley, 436
Planning ahead – or how to fill days with trivia, B. Petty, 430
Politics and officers – the big question, E. Cowen, 408
Poll shows what Tories think of GLC abolition, A. Jacobs, 676
Positive advantages of openness, D. Adams, 1350
Price of democracy – time to count the cost, D. Hender, 163
Public sector's financial straitjacket, D. Adams, 252
Putting the pressure on . . ., J. Moore, 260
Questions of importance, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 188
Raising issues of quality, D. Adams, 624
Rates bill under scrutiny, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 48
Real benefits of twinning, R. Hedley, 1199
Responses shrouded in mystery, J. Harris, 876
Results that crack the crystal ball, C. Rallings & M. Thrasher, 826
Scottish districts threaten to break rate fund limits, D. Scott, 1448
There's little protection from a government that breaks the rules, T. Travers, 488
Thoughts on streamlining democratic process, D. Adams, 367
Time for an assessment of examination suggestions, D. Hender, 395
Time for careful analysis, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 439
Time for self appraisal, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 1060
Time for women to make their mark, M. Alexander, 568
Time to reward enterprise in the public sector, D. Hender, 282
Tory MPs unimpressed by metropolitan counties, A. Jacobs, 1290
U.K. regional contradictions, D. Hender, 660
Unfair grants system will hit low spenders, J. Gibson & C. Game, 16
Validity – abolition arguments, D. Hender, 1346
Valuable role of the Audit Commission, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 1173
Voters' verdict on rate capping, A. Midwinter, 647
Weak substitute for abolishing the rates system, A. Midwinter, 1317
What the public really thinks, V. Gallant & C. Vamplew, 649
Where the officer stands in the anti-abolition battle, D. Hender, 12
Who will keep checks on control? G. Jones & J. Stewart, 947
Who will spare a dime for voluntary services? P. Westland, 572
Will there be life after the Rates Act? B. Jackson, 1799

PROFILE

Elizabeth Cockburn, M. FitzGerald, 1258
Bill Gill, M. FitzGerald, 652
Pamela Grandy, M. FitzGerald, 1112
Arnold Hood, M. FitzGerald, 283
Jack Layden, M. FitzGerald, 368
Gordon Moore, M. FitzGerald, 1056
Christiane Ohsan, M. FitzGerald, 42
Helen Pott, M. FitzGerald, 1408
Colin Roddan, M. FitzGerald, 164
Clifford Smith, M. FitzGerald, 768
Anne Sofer, M. FitzGerald, 926